Frequently Asked Questions

1. What exactly is Operation Slumber?
   Our Operation Slumber Overnight program is an incredible opportunity for organized youth groups and families to discover what it takes to live, eat and sleep aboard the Intrepid. Intrepid is better than ever and yours alone from sunset until sunrise the following day.

2. What's included?
   All activities, dinner, snack & breakfast, voucher for Museum admission (good for 60 days), Intrepid Goodie bag with T-shirt and patch. Please see our sample itinerary for more information.

3. Will I get access to the Space Shuttle Enterprise?
   Guests now get the chance to visit the newly re-opened Space Shuttle Pavilion. This exciting new exhibit now showcases the Space Shuttle Enterprise like it has never been seen before. Using multimedia exhibits you can learn about the history of the Shuttle program and be able to track its incredible journey to the Intrepid. The Space Shuttle Pavilion will be included on all reservations. Participants will also be given a free voucher to come back and visit the museum and it will include free access to the Space Shuttle Pavilion.

4. I have a date in mind; how do I know if it is available?
   Dates are determined by the Intrepid quarterly. If you have a group of 150 or more, please let us know as we may be able to accommodate your group on a specific date. Check the Operation Slumber section of our web site for future dates or contact our Group Sales Department 646-381-5010 or via email at groupsales@intrepidmuseum.org for currently available dates.

5. What type of dinner/snack/breakfast is provided?
   Dinner – buffet style with water
   Snack – cookies, milk and water
   Breakfast – continental style, juice and coffee
   - Please let us know of any food allergies as we will try our best to accommodate

6. Are there different activities for different age/scout level groups?
   The Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum as well as the activities included in Operation Slumber are good for children of all ages. Sample activities include:
   - Explore the Hangar Deck and the new Exploreum interactive hall with tons of hands-on fun;
   - Search for "treasure" during your special Scavenger Hunt;
   - Tour the Flight Deck by flashlight and hear tales of the Intrepid;
   - Ride on our 4D Cosmic Coaster Thrill Ride, the XD Theater;
   - Watch a movie - and more!

7. What is the minimum group size? Maximum?
   Operation Slumber now open for families and organized youth groups. The maximum per event is 250 so we are able to accommodate most group sizes. If your group is larger than 200, please let us know and we will see if it is possible to accommodate the entire party. Discounted rates apply to groups of 15 or more.

8. What are the age limitations?
   All youth must be at least 6 years old and no older than 17 years old. Programming is ideal for children between 8 and 12 years old.

9. How many adults do I need to bring with my youth group?
   Our chaperone policy requires one (1) adult for every five (5) youth. Adults must be 21 years of age or older. For youth under 8 years of age, we require a ratio of one (1) adult for every youth. The number of adults may not exceed the number of youth.

10. Can I drop my children off at night and pick them up in the morning?
    No. We require adult supervision on all bookings. One adult can bring up to five children. If more than five children are attending, a second adult will need to attend.

11. What is the cost? Is it the same price for scouts and chaperones?
    The cost of Operation Slumber is $120 for all individual participants. Our group rate for a group of 15 or more is $99 per person. Museum members receive the discounted rate of $99 as well.

12. Do we sleep in soldier's berthing? Are there separate sleeping areas for my group?
    Participants sleep amongst the planes and exhibits in our Hangar Deck on cots provided by the Museum. Please bring your own sleeping bags and/or blankets.

13. Are there showers available?
    There are not showers available. Bathrooms with toilets and sinks are available throughout the ship.

14. How does the museum admission voucher work?
    Your voucher is good for museum admission for up to 60 days after your overnight. Voucher holders should proceed to the Group Sales desk to exchange voucher for admission ticket. This voucher cannot be used in the Museum store or at any Museum food stands. Voucher is only valid once and must be surrendered to receive admission ticket. Voucher is non-refundable. Expires sixty (60) days from date on reverse. Vouchers are only redeemable on-site at the Intrepid Museum Welcome Center and not available for web site, group or special event reservations. Cannot be combined with any other offer.

15. Can I use the voucher for next day admission?
    Certainly! Please note that Operation Slumber ends at 8:00am the next day and you must vacate the Museum at that time. The Museum reopens at 10:00am at which point your group can re-enter. Please be advised you will need to go through security screening again if you leave the secure area of our complex.

16. Can I have my birthday party during Operation Slumber?
    Currently, we do not allow Birthday Parties during Operation Slumber. If you are interested in a Birthday Party, please contact Group Sales at 646-381-5010 or via email at groupsales@intrepidmuseum.org for more information.

17. I'm part of an adult/senior/mixed/family group; can we sleep on Intrepid?
    Yes! Individuals can participate in Operation Slumber. Please note that Operation Slumber is a youth program and adult supervision is required for youth participants.

18. Where is there overnight parking?
    The Intrepid itself does not offer parking, but there are several lots in the vicinity. Please note that there is parking for Park Right on 670 West 43rd Street between 11th and 12th Avenue, their contact number is 212-695-1241. Park It also provides parking as well and they are located on 622- 630 W. 51st Street between 11th and 12th Avenue, they can be reached at 212-245-5910 for pricing. Please contact them directly for their rates and fees.

19. I still have questions. Help!
    Please contact our Group Sales Department at 646-381-5010 or via email at groupsales@intrepidmuseum.org and we will happily answer any and all of your questions.
