

Military Family Programs

for children ages 3-18

Created for current and former military service members and their families, these two-hour programs include a hands-on tour of the Museum, experiments and design challenges intended to engage the whole family. Join us before the program for refreshments and casual conversation.

Programs are free, but registration is required. Please fill out the online registration form at mfpairplanesvshelicopters033119.eventbrite.com. For more information, email access@intrepidmuseum.org or call 646-381-5158.

Airplanes vs. Helicopters

Sunday, March 31, 12:30pm-3:00pm

12:30pm-1:00pm Refreshments

1:00pm-2:00pm Guided tour of the Museum

2:00pm-3:00pm Family activities

Discover what makes airplanes and helicopters similar and different. Learn how they fly through the air in hands-on explorations of the Museum's aircraft collection, experiments and art activities.

Veterans Programs are made possible by public funds facilitated by the Councilman Chaim Deutsch, Chair of the Committee on Veterans, in partnership with the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs. These programs are also supported by: Craig Newmark Philanthropic Fund
